Responsibilities of Abstract Presenters

- ☐ Presenter will be the primary contact person for all correspondence about the abstract and will communicate with co-authors regarding its status. Presenter’s name and email address will be published with the abstract on the conference website.

- ☐ Presenter accepts responsibility on behalf of all co-authors for permission to reproduce presentation.

Permission to Reproduce Abstract

All accepted abstracts, other than those that are withdrawn prior to publication and any that may have been accepted as a special late exception, will be published on the conference website. All reproductions shall be made only with appropriate acknowledgement of the Presenter as the author, and only with reference to presentation at the Canadian Cardiac Oncology Network Meeting 2019. No portion of the abstract shall be extracted for reproduction or publication by itself, unless specifically offered by the Presenter as a summary, overview, or abstract.

- ☐ I give consent to reproduce my abstract on the conference website.
